Számonkérési és értékelési rendszere:

Students are expected to pass a so-called complex (written and oral) exam in the exam period. According to university rules, complex exam is the following: the first part is a written test, and serves as the entry for the second, oral part. If the written part fails, the student cannot go to the oral exam, but has to register to a re-take exam.

The requirements for the exam are:

- the mandatory readings;
- the materials of lectures;
- 4 selected books from the list of suggested readings. Students are absolutely free to choose 4 books from the
