

SUMMER SCHOOL 2027 – CALL FOR TEACHING STAFF

Civil Society, Human Rights, and Regime Change in Central and Eastern Europe – CEEPUS Network

ELTE Faculty of Social Sciences, Department of Human Rights and Politics, Budapest – 28 June to 3 July 2027

We invite colleagues from all partner universities of the CEEPUS network to teach at the summer school.

Key facts

Dates	Budapest 28 June – 3 July
Venue	ELTE Lágymányos Campus, Budapest
Language	English
Students	8 CEEPUS, 15 Erasmus BIP, plus selected ELTE students; mainly PhD and MA
Credits	3 ECTS for students
Thematic focus	Democratic transition, transitional justice and victim support, building on ELTE's research project Reconciliation and the Public Sphere after the Orbán Regime (REPUBHU)

What you can contribute

- a lecture
- a seminar or short course
- participation in a panel discussion
- mentoring a student group project

Please send us a title and a short abstract of your contribution.

Funding and logistics

- Your mobility can be funded by CEEPUS or Erasmus staff mobility.
- Erasmus procedures and internal deadlines differ by university. Please check them with your Erasmus or CEEPUS coordinator now.
- There is no registration fee. We are negotiating preferential rates for comfortable accommodation near the campus and will share the options; please book your stay directly.
- Participants can also attend the panels of an international conference held in Budapest at the same time.

Contact

Alíz Nagy – aliz.nagy@tatk.elte.hu

ELTE

FACULTY OF
SOCIAL SCIENCES